“Korean Government Scholarship Program for Graduate Students”

Pledge (서약서)

As an applicant for 2010 “the Korean Government Scholarship Program (KGSP) for Graduate Students”, I pledge to abide by the following rules;

- (1) To refrain from violation of university regulations and to fulfill my obligations as a student to the best of my ability.
- (2) To behave in a manner appropriate to the Korean culture and society, and not to participate in any form of political activity (such as organizing a political party, joining a political party, attending political meetings, publishing political articles and declarations, organizing or participating in demonstrations of a political nature, and so on).
- (3) To accept responsibility for paying any debts incurred in Korea
- (4) To agree with NIIED's decision concerning the course and the institution of the Korean language course.
- (5) To abide by all terms and regulations set by NIIED.
- (6) To admit NIIED to use my personal information of the application documents in order to decide the admission.

If I am proved to have violated any of the above or to have made a false statement in my application documents, I shall accept any resolution or penalty made by NIIED, even though it might result in suspension, revocation or withdrawal of the scholarship.

I was informed and fully understand that KGSP students are not allowed to transfer schools after entering the program for the entire duration of their studies.

* Only for an Integrated Master’s & Doctoral Program applicant: I’ve already checked the applying university whether it offers the Program or not. (tick  in )
